CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR GRADUATES

Class of 2011 Valedictorian

Ashley Jackson

As a young girl I did not know what God had in store for me. I was only worried about the present. However, as I began to grow so did my intelligence. I learned and developed the simplest to the toughest skills from my parents, teachers, and my community. With all the support, I grew into a mature and strong minded young lady. I don't dwell about my past and its hardships because my future is all that counts. All of my life experiences helped me become the person I am today. I understand that I will experience many more things, but over the years they will shape me into an even stronger young woman. I give thanks to my family. My aunt Erica, who is no longer with us, will always be in my heart and I will always remember the words of encouragement she shared with me. I remember our last conversation. It seems like my aunt knew the right words to say to me all of the time. I appreciate her kindness and I can truly say that she is the one woman who inspired me to excel in life. Remembering her love and support is what keeps me striving for success. I give thanks to my parents who raised me to be a leader and not a follower. My parents support me in everything I do in school, at home and in my community. My friends who have held my hand through high school and helped me stay positive guide me through life. I am thankful for my mentor, Mrs. Robin Williams, who helped me realize the importance of having an education. In addition, I thank Hydeia Austin for being there for me since day one of our freshman year. I don't think I would be the person I am today without the influences of the people I have mentioned. I wish everyone the best of luck in the class of 2011. Always remember that "you hold the key to your future."

Class of 2011 Salutatorian

Hydeia Austin

Ever since I was a little girl, I believed that "The sky was the limit." I am proud of what I have accomplished and that I am going forth to continue my education. It does not matter where you came from or where you started, it is about how you finish. Have faith in yourself and have faith that you have been prepared well enough to take whatever life hands you. The sky is the limit. Do not limit your future. Everyone has different paths in life. Strive to be the best that you can be. I experienced many personal challenges, but I was never defeated by them. These challenges only made me stronger. They have made me believe that anything is possible. I give special thanks to my family, especially my cousin/sister Tanisha, my Great Aunt Geraldine and cousin Tai. I also give dedication to my great-grandmother, Thelma Wright, God rest her soul, who was the air I breathe the legs I walk with and the spirit within me. If it wasn't for her loving me and raising me I would have been a lost soul. I am so grateful and blessed to have her in my life. Also, to my cousin Toi for taking me into her home and helping me get through a very difficult and confusing time. I thank my friends for always being in my corner, I thank Ashley Jackson for helping me through school and personal challenges. To all my fellow classmates keep smiles on your faces. Life may seem hard now, but if you keep a positive attitude, you will be a happy and successful person, community member and citizen. To the Class of 2011, I leave you with this quote by Maya Angelou "We may all encounter defeats but we must not be defeated."

A Teacher for All Seasons

A teacher is like Spring,
Who nurtures new green sprouts,
Encourages and leads them,
Whenever they have doubts.

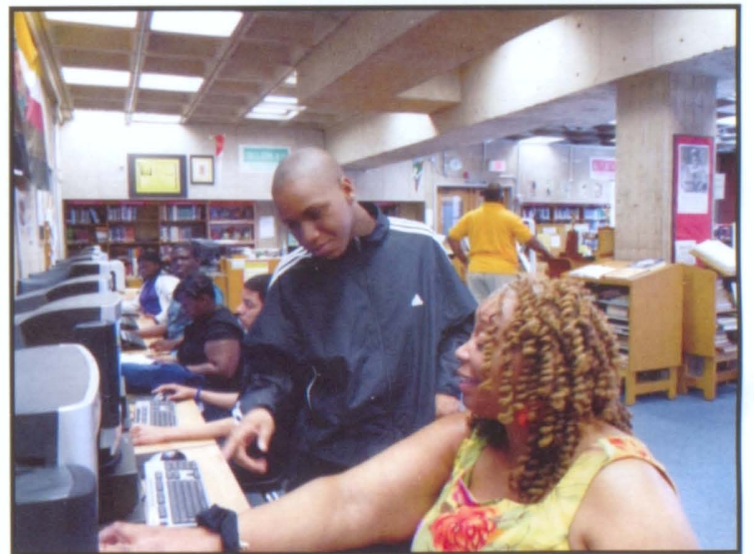

A teacher is like Summer,
Whose sunny temperament
Makes studying a pleasure,
Preventing discontent.

A teacher is like Fall,
With methods crisp and clear,
Lessons of bright colors
And a happy atmosphere.

A teacher is like Winter,
While it's snowing hard outside,
Keeping students comfortable,
As a warm and helpful guide.

Teacher, you do all these things,
With a pleasant attitude;
You're a teacher for all seasons,
And you have my gratitude!

By Joanna Fuchs

WE COULDN'T HAVE DONE IT

Mrs. Maloney, English Teacher

I couldn't have done it without Mrs. Maloney. The phone calls she made to my home and the constant reminders made it was worth it. Mrs. Maloney has a way of explaining things that makes it easy to understand. Thank you so much for motivating me to get my act together.

-Jasmine Murdough

Mr. Hassan Williams, Music Teacher

Hassan "Hass" Williams is my favorite teacher at Shabazz. He helped me learn to play the flute. I could always look to Mr. Williams for advice and a good laugh. I don't think I could have had such a good time in high school if it wasn't for Mr. Williams. He was instrumental in getting me to join the band as well as getting accepted to Bethune Cookman University.

-Arielle Robinson

Mrs. Baskerville, Vice Principal

I honestly couldn't have done it without Mrs. Baskerville. She has helped me through difficult times. Her persistence helped me to complete the HSPA process and her words of encouragement and motivation helped me realize that graduation from Malcolm X Shabazz High School is possible.

- Kuajalier Jackson

WITHOUT YOU

Mr. Mills, Vice Principal

I couldn't have done it without Mr. Mills. Ever since my sophomore year, he has pushed me to strive for excellence and to prove myself to everyone that has doubted me. He has been a father figure and friend. Mr. Mills, I want to thank you for the talks and inspiration. As a result of your guidance, I have turned my attitude around and I look forward to attending college in the fall. Thanks again.

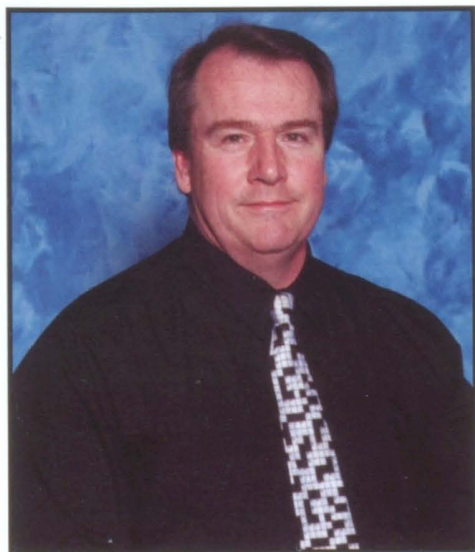

-Shirley Bradley

Mrs. R. Williams, Social Studies Teacher

The teacher that I give recognition to is Mrs. R. Williams. I have never met a teacher that had so much faith in her students and believes they can become anything they desire. When I entered her AP History, class she embraced her students with love but also reminded them how rigorous this course would get in time. However, as an immature and undisciplined student, I did not take her words seriously. Then, I received my first "F" on the mid-term and soon realized the seriousness of this course and how I needed to buckle down. The long nights of studying and re-writing essays allowed me to discipline myself. Mrs. Williams pushed me to do better so I could be better prepared for the future. I give thanks to Mrs. Williams not only because she is a great teacher but also because she changed my mindset regarding education. Mrs. Williams has become my mentor and since then, has been an inspiration to my life. She will always be in my heart and I will never forget her love and support. I can surely say that Mrs. Williams does go above and beyond the call of duty.

-Ashley Jackson

Mr. Murray, Mathematics Teacher

Mr. Murray is an excellent teacher; he is also dedicated and courteous. I have had the pleasure of being in his class for three years. The trait I like the best about him is his drive. He created the first AP Statistic and Calculus class at Shabazz in over 30 years. He broke barriers when he decided to teach us. He molded us and took our math skills to another level. He may talk too much and make corny jokes, and be in his own "math world," but his heart is in the right place. Mr. Murray is our "full service" math teacher. His persistence is amazing to me because he constantly stays on us about our work. He strives to be unique. He took a group of kids that weren't prepared and brought us up to speed. He bends over backwards for his students. I commend Mr. Murray for all he has done for me as well as my classmates. He refers to us as his "special kids" but in my mind, he is a very special teacher who cares about his kids and loves what he does. He is one of the teachers here that I will truly miss. I also know he is only a phone call away when I need help in college.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Advance Placement Courses at MXS

AP English Literature and Composition is a challenging course designed to engage students in the careful reading and critical analysis of fictional literature. Students are expected to read challenging texts, for example, novelists such as Toni Morrison and Oscar Wilde at home, as well as in the classroom. Additionally, students independently participate in deep analysis of literature as preparation for class discussions. Through the close reading of selected texts, students can deepen their understanding of the ways writers use language to provide both meaning and pleasure for their readers.

In Loving Memory

Alexis Frazier

April 25, 1993 - June 26, 2009

The Class of 2011 would like to pay tribute to Alexis Frazier. Although she left this world early she will always be remembered as a bulldog. She is an example of how life is too short and the fact that we should cherish the time we have here on earth. She was energetic and kept a smile on her face. Her presence is missed but will never be forgotten. Her loved ones and those who knew her in school are reminded of her bubbly personality. Although she will not be walking across the stage with us, her spirit will forever be in our hearts.

We love you Ms. Dinkins !

Class of 2011

Dedication

Leila Dinkins

Ms. Dinkins joined the administrative team of Malcolm X Shabazz High School in 1992. She came with many years of teaching experience, professionalism, knowledge of English/Language Arts and commitment to quality education for all students. These were the exact characteristics Ms. Bennett, the principal, was looking for when she recommended Ms. Dinkins for the Department Chairperson position. The department thrived as she and her teachers developed strategies and approaches to help students become better readers, writers and critical thinkers.

Ms. Dinkins continued to provide leadership and administrative expertise when she was promoted to the position of Vice Principal in 1999 and assumed the responsibility of overseeing the Freshman Academy. She understood the adjustments the students had to make to leave their elementary and middle school mindsets behind and adapt to the high school environment and program. Her experience in the school and her familiarity with the students and their families enabled her to work with the teachers in the academy leading the freshmen to make a positive transition to high school.

In 2004, Ms. Dinkins was appointed to the position Principal and served as the top administrator and instructional leader of Malcolm X Shabazz High School until June 2009. Her seventeen years of service to our school, commitment and love for “her babies” will long be remembered. She knew the students, she knew the families and she knew the community. These are vital talents every staff member must have to successfully serve the Malcolm X Shabazz/South Side community. Ms. Dinkins retired in June 2010 as the Principal of Newark Evening High School. She will always be a Lady Bulldog to the students and staff.

Stand and Deliver

Stand and Deliver is a dynamic, “hands-on” seminar that will dramatically change the way students talk, listen, and connect with others. It teaches seminar participants that being a truly great communicator is not simply about being naturally articulate or being a “good speaker.” What really counts is making an authentic connection with other people that comes not merely from the head but from the heart.

Paint their minds

As you light the path
Which leads our youth

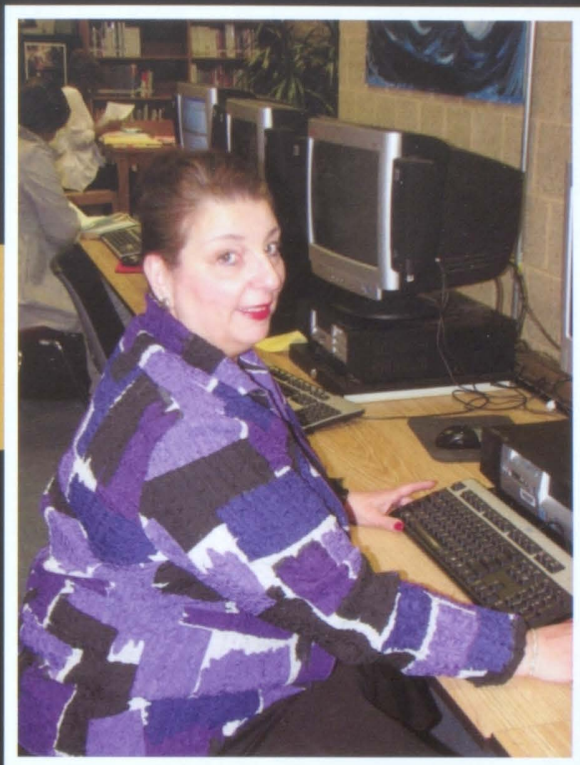

For our future brightens

Each smile you lengthen
Each goal you help reach

Begins with a teacher
